Farnsworth Banks - Catalina

2-3 Dives

Aboard the "Sand Dollar"

$139.00*

Farnsworth Bank is a large seamount consisting of several pinnacles and it is half a mile wide from east to west. It is situated five miles south from the back side of Catalina in the open ocean. It is an ecological reserve exposed to all weather conditions and has strong current making it an advanced dive.

Following the First Dive (s), we'll "decompress" over a Hot lunch & Snacks provided by the Dive Boat. The Trip is Food & Air Inclusive, so bring an Appetite and a sense of Adventure!

After Lunch we'll dive some more and enjoy this treasured ecological preserve until it's time to depart. Please join us for this awesome Dive Location!

This Dive Requires an Advanced Certification

The Boat Provides Tanks & Weights—or you can Bring Your Own. Departure 6:00am-Return 5:00pm
